Macros is a triple headed eatery consisting of a burrito bar, asian fusion section, and juice bar and it's based out of San Luis Obispo. The service Macros provides is a quick nutrient-dense eatery. We sell workout supplements, but not in large quantities like most supplement stores. At Macros we sell the supplements through the form of a juice bar. Macros is a company whose goal is to help people get to their physical goals as well as providing a location where like minded people can interact about health and fitness.
